The above is understood without prejudice to the right assisting any shareholder during the course of the General Shareholders' Meeting to formulate alternative proposals or regarding items that are not required to be included in the agenda, in the terms provided in the Spanish Companies Act.

INTERVENTION OF A NOTARY PUBLIC AT THE MEETING

In accordance with article 203 of the Spanish Companies Act in connection with article 101 of the Commercial Register Regulations and article 7.5 and 13.5 of the Regulation of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Board of Directors has requested the presence of a notary public to issue the minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

RIGHT TO ATTEND AND TO VOTE

In accordance with articles 15 and 17 of the Company's Bylaws and 7.4 and 14 of the Regulation of the General Shareholders' Meeting, any Shareholder who, five days prior to the date expected to hold the General Shareholders' Meeting upon first call holds one or more shares registered with the Book Entry Register ("Registro de Anotaciones en Cuenta"), may attend and vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Shareholders entitled to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting may exercise voting rights, in person or by proxy, by the following manners: (i) by electronically attending and voting at the meeting, by their prior identification through the corporate website of the Company (www.applus.com); or (ii) by voting at the Shareholder Information Office ("Oficina de Información al Accionista") (Applus Services, S.A., Ronda de la Font del Carme s/n, Bellaterra, Cerdanyola del Vallès, 08193 Barcelona), by means of a duly signed and completed attendance and voting card; or (iii) by voting by post, by means of a duly signed and completed attendance and voting card, or (iv) by electronic communication pursuant to the established procedure, using the form available at the Company's website (www.applus.com), all the above in accordance with the procedural rules set out below.

Shareholders wishing to vote at the Shareholder Information Office, by post or by electronic communication must indicate their vote for each item included in the Agenda. If they fail to indicate their vote in connection with any item in the Agenda, they shall be deemed to vote in favour of the proposals of the Board of Directors regarding the items included in the Agenda and against the new items in the Agenda and new resolution proposals presented, as the case may be, by the Shareholders pursuant to article 519 of the Spanish Companies Act.

A vote casted at the Shareholders' Information Office ("Oficina de Información al Accionista") by post or by electronic communication may only be rendered without force or effect: (i) as a result of its subsequent express revocation, using the same method used to cast the vote and within the period provided to cast such vote; or (ii) by the voting Shareholder remotely attending the General Shareholders' Meeting.

In the event that a Shareholder should cast his/her vote one or more times pursuant to the same or to a different long-distance communication method, the last vote received shall prevail, and those received on prior dates shall be rendered invalid.

PROXIES

All Shareholders entitled to attend may be represented at the General Shareholders' Meeting by another person, who does not necessarily need to be a Shareholder, in compliance with the requirements and formalities set forth for such purposes.

The delegation must be given in writing, and must be a special proxy for each General Shareholders' Meeting, unless the representative is the spouse, ascendant or descendant of the Shareholder (evidenced by presenting the documentation showing the relevant family relationship) or if the representative is an entity/individual holding a general power of attorney to manage all the Shareholder's assets in Spain set forth in a public deed. The representation may be also granted by post or by electronic communication, provided that the identity of the representative and the security of the relevant electronic communications are ensured, all the above in accordance with the procedural rules set out below.

Proxies are always revocable. For the revocation to be enforceable, notice thereof must be given to the Company in the same terms used to give notice of the proxy. Attendance to the General Shareholders' Meeting by the Shareholder shall be deemed a revocation of the proxy. Any vote casted by any means of long-distance communication shall render without force or effect any proxy granted by electronic means or by post, whether prior (which shall be deemed revoked) or subsequent (which shall be deemed not given). The proxy shall likewise be rendered without force or effect as a result of the Company becoming aware of the transfer of the shares.

Shareholders who are not of legal age or incapacitated persons and Shareholders that are legal entities shall be represented by their legal representatives duly appointed as such.

A Shareholder may not have more than one representative at the General Shareholders' Meeting, both in the case of legal representation and in the event that the Shareholder should delegate the right to attend the meeting.

In the case of proxies sent to the Company or conferred in favour of its Directors, whether directly or through the entities acting as depositaries of the shares or in charge of the book entry register, the following rules shall apply, save as otherwise stated by the represented Shareholder: (i) unless otherwise stated by the Shareholder conferring its representation, it shall be understood to have given specific instructions to the representative to vote in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors in respect of the items comprised in the Agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting, and against the resolution proposals that have not been formulated by the Board of Directors; (ii) in the absence of designation of the person who is to act as representative, the delegation shall be deemed conferred upon the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting; (iii) such representation shall be extended to matters not included in the Agenda of the meeting that may however be submitted to a vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting. In this last case, and unless otherwise instructed by the represented Shareholder, the representative shall cast a negative vote.

If voting instructions would have been given by the represented Shareholder, the representative shall cast a vote in compliance with such instructions, and shall be obliged to keep such instructions for one year as from the date on which the General Shareholders' Meeting was held. The representative may represent more than one Shareholder, without limitation as to the number of represented Shareholders. Should a representative hold proxies from several Shareholders, he/she may cast different votes depending on the instructions given by each Shareholder.

In accordance with the provisions of articles 523 and 526 of the Spanish Companies Act regarding potential conflicts of interest, the Director in favour of which a Shareholder grants a proxy may not cast a vote corresponding to the represented shares in those items of the Agenda where he/she has a conflict of interest, unless he/she received specific voting instructions for each of such items from the Shareholder. If there are no specific voting instructions, the proxy shall be considered to have been given to the Secretary of the Board of Directors.

In accordance with article 524 of the Spanish Companies Act, entities appearing as Shareholders in accordance with the accounting register of the shares but acting on behalf of several persons may, in any case, divide their vote, and cast votes in a divergent manner in compliance with different voting instructions, if received. These intermediaries may delegate their vote to each indirect titleholder or to third parties designated by the latter, and the number of proxies conferred may not be limited.

PROCEDURAL RULES IN RELATION TO REMOTE ATTENDANCE AND TO PROXIES AND VOTING PRIOR TO THE ANNUAL GENERAL SHAREHOLDERS' MEETING THROUGH LONG-DISTANCE COMMUNICATION METHODS

a) Remote attendance

Pursuant to the provisions of Articles 17.1 of the Company's Bylaws and 7.4 and 17.2 of the Regulation of the General Shareholders' Meeting, Shareholders (or their representatives) may exercise their right to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting remotely, with due adherence to the following instructions.

a.1) Prior registration Shareholders who wish to attend the Meeting must register 24 hours before the date scheduled for the General Shareholders' Meeting, at first call, i.e., before 12:00 PM on 26 May 2021. To do so, the Shareholder must access the General Shareholders' Meeting section of the Company's website (www.applus.com), follow the instructions and fill in the necessary registration data. This prior registration requirement will not be applicable to representatives, to whom the Company -once the condition of shareholder of whom they represent has been verified in accordance with the provisions of section a.3) below- will give access to the remote attendance platform so that they can connect to it in accordance with the provisions of section a.4) below.

The guarantees the Board of Directors consider suitable to ascertain the authenticity and identity of the Shareholder attending remotely are (i) the recognised electronic signature and the advanced electronic signature, provided they are based on the Electronic User Certificate issued by the Spanish Public Authority of Certification (CERES), dependent from the Spanish National Mint's Public Certification Authority with respect to which no revocation has been registered, (ii) the recognised electronic certificate forming part of the electronic Identity Card issued pursuant to the Royal Decree 1553/2005 of 23 December regulating issuance of National Identity Cards and their electronic signature certificates, or (iii) the user/password credentials that the Shareholder will receive at their e-mail address after the verification of their identity and status as Shareholder using the special registration form available in the General Shareholders' Meeting section of the Company's website (www.applus.com).

If the person who will attend the Meeting electronically has been conferred a delegation in its favour, the Shareholder who has delegated it must communicate to the representative such delegation and, in addition, unless the delegation was made electronically, a copy of the card must be sent to the Company (by post to Applus Services, S.A., Relación con Inversores / Junta General, Ronda de la Font del Carme s/n, Bellaterra, Cerdanyola del Vallés, 08193 Barcelona, or by email to juntageneral@applus.com), together with the Identity Document or Passport of the representative, before 12:00 on the day before to the date scheduled for the General Shareholders' Meeting on first call, this is, before 12:00 PM on 26 May 2021 and to identified as instructed.

a.2) Submission of interventions and questions

Shareholders or their representatives who, in the exercise of their rights, intend to remotely intervene at the Meeting and, where appropriate, request information or clarifications in relation to the items comprised in the Agenda, request clarifications regarding the publicly accessible information which the Company should have provided to the Spanish National Securities Market Commission since the last Annual General Shareholders' Meeting, and concerning the auditor's report or make the proposals allowed by the law, must formulate in writing and send their intervention, question or proposal through the application set up to this effect in the General Shareholders' Meeting section of the Company's website (www.applus.com), from the time of the prior registration and until the end of the round of interventions established by the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting

The attendee who wishes to have his/her intervention recorded in the minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting must indicate this clearly and expressly in the text of his/her intervention. The attendees' interventions will be read by the Secretary of the Board in attention to their relevance during the round of interventions. Requests for information or clarification made by attendees will be answered during the meeting or in writing within the seven days following the General Shareholders Meeting, in accordance with the provisions of the Spanish Companies Act.

a.3) Accreditation of the Shareholder status of registered persons

Between the end date of the registration period and the date of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Company will verify the Shareholder status of the persons registered in the established manner and within the established deadline.

The attendance of the registered Shareholder shall be subject to confirmation that the shares are registered with the Book Entry Register five days before the date on which the General Shareholders' Meeting is held. Registered Shareholders who lose this condition will be unable to attend the annual General Shareholders' Meeting, as well as, where appropriate, their representatives.

In the event of any discrepancy between the number of shares notified by the Shareholder (or his/her representative) attending and voting remotely and the number of shares listed in the Book Entry Register, pursuant to quorum and voting conditions, the number of shares in the register will be considered as valid.

a.4) Exercise of the attendance and voting rights in the Shareholders' Meeting

The registered Shareholder or his/her representative shall connect, having previously accredited his/her identity, via the Company's website (www.applus.com), in the General Shareholders' Meeting section, between 10:45 AM and 11:45 AM on the day of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

After this time, it will not be possible to connect to the meeting. The Shareholder or his/her representative may follow the broadcast of the meeting and vote in real time on the different items of the Agenda following the instructions therein indicated.

No interventions or questions made by Shareholders or representatives who fail to connect on the day of the Meeting, as provided in this section, shall not be taken into account as they shall be considered as not having attended the General Shareholders' Meeting.

b) Voting at the Shareholder Information Office prior to the Shareholders' Meeting

In the event that a Shareholder decides to cast a vote, in person or by representation, at the Shareholder Information Office (Applus Services, S.A., Ronda de la Font del Carme s/n, Bellaterra, Cerdanyola del Vallès, 08193 Barcelona), he/she must submit the attendance and voting card clearly showing the identity of the Shareholder, the number of shares he/she holds, its vote on each item of the Agenda, and its autograph signature, and show the relevant Identity Document or Passport, if the Shareholder is an individual.
