This right must be exercised by giving notice thereof through a reliable notification, to be received at the Company's headquarters (Applus Services, S.A., Investor Relations/General Shareholders' Meeting, Ronda de la Font del Carme s/n, Bellaterra, Cerdanyola del Vallès, 08193 Barcelona) within five days following the publication of the calling of the meeting, indicating the identity of the Shareholders exercising the right and the number of shares they hold, and the items to be included in the Agenda, attaching a justification or justified resolution proposals concerning such items and, as the case may be, any other documentation that may apply.

In addition, Shareholders holding at least three per cent (3%) of the share capital may submit, pursuant to a notice served through a reliable notification to be received at the Company's headquarters within five days following publication of the calling of this meeting duly justified resolution proposals regarding matters that have already been included or that must be included in the Agenda. The above is understood without prejudice to the right assisting any shareholder during the course of the General Shareholders' Meeting to formulate alternative proposals or regarding items that are not required to be included in the agenda, in the terms provided in the Spanish Companies Act.

INTERVENTION OF A NOTARY PUBLIC AT THE MEETING

In accordance with article 203 of the Spanish Companies Act in connection with article 101 of the Commercial Register Regulations and article 7.5 and 13.5 of the Regulation of the General Shareholders' Meeting, the Board of Directors has requested the presence of a notary public to issue the minutes of the General Shareholders' Meeting.

RIGHT TO ATTEND AND TO VOTE

In accordance with articles 15 of the Company's Bylaws and 14 of the Regulation of the General Shareholders' Meeting, any Shareholder who, five days prior to the date expected to hold the General Shareholders' Meeting upon first call holds one or more shares registered with the Book Entry Register ("Registro de Anotaciones en Cuenta"), may attend and vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting.

Shareholders entitled to attend must provide evidence of their condition as such by means of the corresponding legitimacy certificate ("certificado de legitimación") or the attendance card, which shall be issued by the Company or, at request of the latter, by the entity in charge of the Book Entry Register acting as depositary of the shares.

For the purpose of evidencing the identity of the Shareholders or any valid proxies thereof, at the entrance of the venue of the General Shareholders' Meeting, attendants may be requested to provide their Identity Card ("Documento Nacional de Identidad"), the documents evidencing their capacity as representative or any other official document generally accepted for these purposes.

Shareholders entitled to attend the General Shareholders' Meeting may exercise voting rights, in person or by proxy, by the following manners: (i) by personally attending and casting a vote at the meeting, by means of a duly signed and completed attendance and voting card; or (ii) by voting at the Shareholder Information Office ("Oficina de Información al Accionista") (located at the registered office: Applus Services, S.A., Ronda de la Font del Carne s/n, Bellaterra, Cerdanyola del Vallès, 08193 Barcelona), by means of a duly signed and completed attendance and voting card; or (iii) by voting by post, by means of a duly signed and completed attendance and voting card, or by electronic communication pursuant to the established procedure, using the form available at the Company's website (www.applus.com).

Shareholders wishing to cast a long-distance vote (by post or by electronic communication) must indicate their vote for each item included in the Agenda. If they fail to indicate their vote in connection with any item in the Agenda, they shall be deemed to vote in favour of the proposals of the Board of Directors regarding the items included in the Agenda and against the new items in the Agenda and new resolution proposals presented, as the case may be, by the Shareholders pursuant to article 519 of the Spanish Companies Act.

A vote casted at the Shareholders' Information Office ("Oficina de Información al Accionista") by post or by electronic communication may only be rendered without force or effect: (i) as a result of its subsequent express revocation, using the same method used to cast the vote and within the period provided to cast such vote; or (ii) by the voting Shareholder attending the General Shareholders' Meeting.

In the event that a Shareholder should cast his/her vote one or more times pursuant to the same or to a different long-distance communication method, the last vote received shall prevail, and those received on prior dates shall be rendered invalid.

For the purposes of facilitating participation by all Shareholders, the Company shall put in place the necessary resources to simultaneously translate any interventions in Spanish into English and those in English into Spanish, as well as a consecutive translation into Spanish of any interventions by Shareholders who wish to express themselves in English during the General Shareholders Meeting. Furthermore, the Company shall procure the necessary means to allow Shareholders with limited mobility to take part in the General Shareholders' Meeting.

PROXIES

All Shareholders entitled to attend may be represented at the General Shareholders' Meeting by another person, who does not necessarily need to be a Shareholder, in compliance with the requirements and formalities set forth for such purposes.

The delegation must be given in writing, and must be a special proxy for each General Shareholders' Meeting, unless the representative is the spouse, ascendant or descendant of the Shareholder (evidenced by presenting the documentation showing the relevant family relationship) or if the representative is an entity/individual holding a general power of attorney to manage all the Shareholder's assets in Spain set forth in a public deed. The representation may be also granted by post or by electronic communication, provided that the identity of the representative and the security of the relevant electronic communications are ensured.

Designated representatives must identify themselves by their Identity Card or Passport, and hand over a printed copy of the proxy, as the case may be, by post or by electronic means, duly signed by the representative and by the represented Shareholder.

Proxies are always revocable. For the revocation to be enforceable, notice thereof must be given to the Company in the same terms used to give notice of the proxy. Attendance in person to the General Shareholders' Meeting by the shareholder shall be deemed a revocation of the proxy. Any vote casted by any means of long-distance communication shall render without force or effect any proxy granted by electronic means or by post, whether prior (which shall be deemed revoked) or subsequent (which shall be deemed not given). The proxy shall likewise be rendered without force or effect as a result of the Company becoming aware of the transfer of the shares.

Shareholders who are not of legal age or incapacitated persons and Shareholders that are legal entities shall be represented by their legal representatives duly appointed as such.

A Shareholder may not have more than one representative at the General Shareholders' Meeting, both in the case of legal representation and in the event that the Shareholder should delegate the right to attend the meeting.

In the case of proxies sent to the Company or conferred in favour of its Directors, whether directly or through the entities acting as depositaries of the shares or in charge of the book entry register, the following rules shall apply, save as otherwise stated by the represented Shareholder: (i) unless otherwise stated by the Shareholder conferring its representation, it shall be understood to have given specific instructions to the representative to vote in favour of the proposals made by the Board of Directors in respect of the items comprised in the Agenda of the General Shareholders' Meeting, and against the resolution proposals that have not been formulated by the Board of Directors; (ii) in the absence of designation of the person who is to act as representative, the delegation shall be deemed conferred upon the Chairman of the General Shareholders' Meeting; (iii) such representation shall be extended to matters not included in the Agenda of the meeting that may however be submitted to a vote at the General Shareholders' Meeting. In this last case, and unless otherwise instructed by the represented Shareholder, the representative shall cast a negative vote.

If voting instructions would have been given by the represented Shareholder, the representative shall cast a vote in compliance with such instructions, and shall be obliged to keep such instructions for one year as from the date on which the General Shareholders' Meeting was held. The representative may represent more than one Shareholder, without limitation as to the number of represented Shareholders. Should a representative hold proxies from several Shareholders, he/she may cast different votes depending on the instructions given by each Shareholder.

In accordance with the provisions of articles 523 and 526 of the Spanish Companies Act regarding potential conflicts of interest, the Director in favour of which a Shareholder grants a proxy may not cast a vote corresponding to the represented shares in those items of the Agenda where he/she has a conflict of interest, unless he/she received specific voting instructions for each of such items from the Shareholder. If there are no specific voting instructions, the proxy shall be considered to have been given to the Secretary of the Board of Directors.

In accordance with article 524 of the Spanish Companies Act, entities appearing as Shareholders in accordance with the accounting register of the shares but acting on behalf of several persons may, in any case, divide their vote, and cast votes in a divergent manner in compliance with different voting instructions, if received. These intermediaries may delegate their vote to each indirect titleholder or to third parties designated by the latter, and the number of proxies conferred may not be limited.
